Introduction by Rich Fitzgerald, Allegheny County Executive

Pittsburgh International Airport's Terminal Modernization Program: Building for the Region's Future

In January 2015, Christina Cassotis was hired as CEO of the Allegheny County Airport Authority, which operates Pittsburgh International Airport and Allegheny County Airport.

During that time, Pittsburgh International Airport has nearly doubled its nonstop destinations served and has experienced four straight years of record passenger traffic growth. The airport was named Air Transport World's 2017 Airport of the Year and Regional Airport of the Year by the CAPA Centre for Aviation.

For her role in leading the airports dramatic turnaround, along with a billion dollar Terminal Modernization Program, Christina received the 2017 Excellence in Visionary Leadership Award from Airports Council International North America, and was named the 2017 Director of the Year for medium size airports by Airport Revenue News.

Christina began her career in commercial aviation working for the Massachusetts Port Authority which operates Boston Logan International Airport. She went on to serve as Managing Officer for Airport Services for ICF-SH&E, leading a global team of aviation consultants.

A frequent speaker at national and international aviation events, Christina holds an MBA from the MIT Sloan School of Management and a BA from the University of Massachusetts.
